Reasonable Cause Explanation (990)

This statement is being provided to ask for penalty abatement for the late filing of the return due to reasonable cause. There was no intention to be late. The board consists of all volunteers. The accountant we have worked with for a decade or more to assist us with getting our books ready for tax preparation and an annual audit died unexpectedly during the year. We were unable to locate many of the records they had in regard to our books. We worked with our tax preparer to recreate records as needed and to prepare the books for an accurate return as soon as possible. When the return was completed, the electronic filing window for the tax year had closed and we needed to wait a few more weeks for this to open back up leading to additional delays in filing. We have changed how our records are stored so there is more than one person with access going forward to help ensure continuation of access in the event of the loss of a future accountant/staff. Please consider this to be reasonable cause and abate any assessed penalties. Thank you for your consideration.
